Joseph Trent Morrow

Joseph Trent Morrow was born in Huntington, Indiana to parents Flave and Pauline Morrow, who taught him the importance of education, hard work, volunteerism, and a love for the State of Indiana.

Joseph Morrow attended Indiana University in Bloomington, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree. He then went on to acquire a law degree from IU. Joseph Morrow was admitted to the Indiana Bar Association in 1958.

He served as the Law Clerk for the U.S. District Court of the Northern District of Indiana, and was a Partner in the law firm of Eichhorn, Morrow, Eichhorn.

Mr. Morrow served as Chairman of the Board of Mercantile National Bank for over twenty years.

Known for his philanthropic endeavors and community involvement, Mr. Morrow has long been an active participant throughout the Northwest Indiana community, lending his time and talents to numerous committees and Boards.

January 1, 1997, Mr. Morrow assumed the Chairmanship of the Board of Directors of the Urban League of Northwest Indiana, Inc. His first decision was to dedicate himself to improving the overall academic achievement levels of the youth of Northwest Indiana.

Joseph T. Morrow Scholarship

The Joseph T. Morrow Urban League of Northwest Indiana, Inc. Scholarship was established to enable students from the cities of Hammond, Gary, and East Chicago, Indiana to pursue educational dreams that they might have believed unattainable.

The establishment of this Scholarship by Mr. Morrow's family, wife Sandra Murray Morrow, son Christopher Morrow, and daughter Gale Anne Morrow Crabtree, on December 17, 2001, is representative of Joseph Morrow's level of committed dedication to the Northwest Indiana community, as well as to the principles of the Urban League Movement.

His love for his alma mater is personified in wanting others to share the "Hoosier" educational experience at Indiana University.

A committee comprised of members of the Morrow family, the Urban League of Northwest Indiana, Inc. and the Legacy Foundation annually award the non-renewable scholarship based on the established criteria.
